

Huntsville Amateur Radio Club COVID-19 Liability Waiver

As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, the participation in group activities in which social distancing is difficult, if not impossible, is likely to result in the increased chance of exposure to the virus, which may increase the likelihood of contracting the disease. This exposure is possible through direct contact with other people, proximity to other people, and contact with surfaces with which others have had contact. By participating in an event sponsored by Huntsville Amateur Radio Club (HARC), you represent that you do not have reason to believe that you have contracted the disease, have not experienced symptoms of the disease, nor are you subject to any state or local quarantine orders. Furthermore, you represent that if you have previously tested positive for COVID-19, at least 14 days have elapsed since the date of your last positive test or your last presentation of symptoms, whichever is later; or you have subsequently tested negative for COVID-19. By participating in this activity, you represent that you have been informed of the risks and voluntarily assume the risks of potential infection of the disease. You also understand that there is the possibility that you may transmit the disease to others even if you do not show symptoms of the disease, and others may transmit the disease to you without experiencing symptoms of the disease themselves.

By attending a HARC-sponsored event, you voluntarily assume all risks related to exposure to COVID-19 and agree not to hold Huntsville Amateur Radio Club; or any of its affiliates, directors, officers, agents, or volunteers liable (hereinafter collectively referred to as “us”) for any illness or injury. You and any minors for whom you are the parent or legal guardian (hereinafter collectively referred to as “you”) agree to release us from any liability as a result of any claims, causes of action, or damages, including any costs relating to our defense, as a result of your contraction of the COVID-19 infection, should you contract the disease as a direct result of your participation in a HARC-sponsored event. You also agree to indemnify us in the event that a claim or cause of action is made or asserted against us, including any costs related to our defense, by someone else that has contracted the disease as a result of your participation in the activities.
